1-2 cup of stone raisins and cook with milk entire.
Flour Caudle—Same as Flour Gruel with nutmeg and stimulents added.
Rice Soup (arsars).—One pint and a half of chicken stock, 1 half pint cream, two tablespoons of Rice. Wash rice thoroughly; cook rice and stock two hours very slowly. Rub through a fine sieve, then add cream, salt and pepper and let come to a boil.
Potato Soup—Three potatoes, 1 pint milk, 1 tablespoon of chopped onion, 1 teaspoon of salt, celery, dash of (Cayenne) pepper, 1-2 tablespoon of flour, 1 tablespoon of butter. Cook onions and celery with milk in double boiler. Cut potatoes and boil in salt water; when potatoes are cooked, strain off water and mash, add boiling milk, rub through strainer and put on to boil again. Put butter in sauce pan and when melted and bubbling, add flour, when well mixed stir this into boiling soup, let boil five (5) minutes; if soup is too thick add more milk.
Clam Broth—Fifteen clams, 1-2 pint boiling water. Wash clams, then cook 15 minutes, strain and serve hot. If too salt, dilute with water.
Mutton Chop—One pound of the scrag end of the neck of mutton, 1-2 pint of cold water, 1 tablespoonful of pearl barley. Slice the meat from bones and fat, chop fine as dice, put meat, barley and 1 pint water in one pot and let come to boil slowly, put bones and 1 quart of water into another pot, boil, skim both carefully and set back of stove where it will just bubble for 2 hours, then strain water from bones and pour into other pot, salt and pepper and cook 20 minutes.
Sweet Breads—Roll them in salt water for 30 minutes, add a little lemon juice after it is boiled, plunge sweet-breads in cold water to harden.
White Sauce for Sweet-breads—One tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour (level), 1-2 pint scalded milk. Put butter into sauce pan over fire, until it bubbles, add flour and stir rapidly with bowl of spoon resting on bottom of dish, have ready the scalded milk, add 1-2 and stir until lumps are out, then add remainder and stir until thickened. Add pepper and salt.
Green Sweetbreads—Cut sweetbreads into small pieces, put in white sauce and simmer five minutes.
Fried Sweetbreads—Roll in fine bread crumbs, dip into beaten eggs then in bread crumbs and fry in a little fat.
Beef Tea—One pound meat (ox meat preferred), 1 quart water. Cut meat in very small pieces, put in glass jar with water, cover and let stand in kettle of water back of stove 3 hours, then heat but not boil, strain and salt.
Mutton Chops—To broil mutton chops for the sick, remove the outside skin, as the oil penetrates wrap in greased paper and broil; be careful that paper does not burn.
Scraped Beef—Scrape round steak, season and broil in greased paper.
 MOLLY.

Great Alteration Sale

OF FINE FURNITURE!

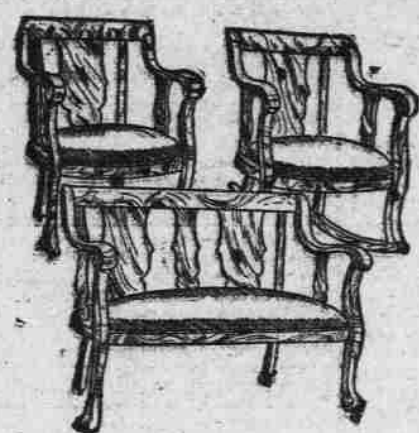

Sale Commences This Morning, July 31st, at 9 o'clock

We have let a contract for a large addition to our store, which will give us 5000 more feet of floor space, and consequently offer you great bargains in order to make room in our now crowded store. When this new addition is completed it will give us half as much more floor space again as what we already have, but we can see whereby we can better serve our customers, and that is what this store is always on the lookout for. We can honestly say that now is your time to save money in buying furniture, for we have never before marked things at such a low price.
